Dear Mister Weisberg

I'm a soldier in Virginia

I got your address off the Internet. I've never written to a celebrity before and hope you don't mind being first.

I've always been a JFK assassination "buff". I've probably read every book or article ever written on it, including your "Whitewash". I enjoyed it very much. You were one of the first people to stand up and criticize the Warren Commission and their lies. It's chilling that a group of conspirators could kill the president and get away with it. I just wish there were more like you. I saw you on an A and E special called "Reasonable Doubt" and on another called "The Men Who Killed Kennedy". You're a beacon of common sense in a world gone batty. I just can't believe that ridiculous single bullet theory Arlen Specter dreamed up. Why don't they just ask us to believe in the Easter bunny while they at it? They expect us to believe that bullet made 7 holes in those 2 guys and came out in pristine shape. (It also had to make 2 90° turns to do it!) That is so asinine. Somebody pointed out once that if JFK's assassination was a normal murder case and if you kept insisting there was no conspiracy with all the evidence pointing otherwise they would lock you up!

I was writing you because I had 2 questions. I've always believed the CIA and the Mob working together killed JFK. I also believe the military was involved because Kennedy was going to pull out of Vietnam. I watched a documentary once on the assassination and they talked about a top secret unit in the CIA called S Force. They said they were the ones who killed Kennedy. I read you were with the CIA's forerunner the OSS. Did you ever hear of S Force? Does it even exist?

My second question is about Dr King's assassination. You're an expert on that as well. I think James Earl Ray was set up as the patsy. Ray was so wimpy and stupid. I don't think he could have robbed a 5 and 10 cent store! J Edgar Hoover hated Dr King and repeatedly harassed him. He bugged him and even had one agent write a letter to King suggesting he kill himself! Hoover was the most dangerous man in the country the last years of his life. Do you think Hoover could have set that up?

I'd love to hear back. I think you're a courageous man and a great seeker of truth.
